10 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HIRE CHRISTIAN BISCHOFF

1. Because you want your people to take action on the ideas learned during your meeting

You give Christian your three key messages you want your participants to take home – Christian will make sure nobody forgets them. If you wish to, all participants make a 21-day commitment at the end of his speech: a goal they are pursuing for the next three weeks. Also participants will have to follow-up with each other 21 days after the presentation to make sure they follow through on their commitment.

2. Because you want an energetic and moving presentation style

Christian's presentations are renowned to be dynamic, funny, moving, and applicable. For sure, nobody sleeps during his power talks! Christian's message is simple and to the point. His incredible energy level, enthusiasm and funny presentation style will move your audience to take action on their goals, increase productivity in your organization and ultimately touch their hearts.

3. Because you want long term impact

Participants will keep Christian's message in mind longterm. His delivery style focuses on the episodic memory of people, which is activated through surprising, unique experiences. Participants usually can recite content long after the speech.

Hey, he is wearing a red headband to make sure NOBODY forgets his message and his content.

4. Because you want a speaker who speaks from experience

As a former professional basketball player and coach, Christian went through all ups and downs in life. Age 16, he was the youngest professional basketball player in Germany ever. Age 19, his career was over due to serious back problems. At that point he went through a depression... found new meaning and purpose in life... Age 25, he was the youngest professional basketball coach in the 1st division. Age 26, he got fired for the first time. Today, Christian is a successful entrepreneur who worked in sales for the most renowned training company worldwide.

5. Because you want a custom made program

Christian will prepare his presentation in collaboration with you, the client. He will study carefully all the documentation that you will provide him with and will set an appointment with you by phone in order to understand your expectations and your objectives. Christian invests many hours to prepare his speech carefully. He makes sure that his presentation is clear and to the point. No program is identical because each audience is unique. Each program is tailored to your specific needs in order to accomplish your goals and the results you wish to obtain.

6. Because you want a speaker who walks his talk

Christian walks his talk. Willpower is his life philosophy. In 2009, he finished the Transalpine-Run, a race across the Alpes, 250 kilometers and 15.500 meters in altitude from Germany to Italy.

He is a lifelong learner and tries to improve every day in his field of expertise.

He dedicates his life to answer one question: how can a person have a successful, happy and fulfilling life?

7. Because you want the participants to easily relate to him

Most motivational speaker have accomplished or lived through such surreal experience (climbing Mont Everest, winning a gold medal in the Olympics, surviving a tragic car accident, etc.) that audience members can not relate to. Christian's stories and experiences are easy to relate to since they are taken out of his current life. He does not talk about the Transalpine-Run, unless you want him to.

8. Because you want a real professional speaker and not an amateur

Christian has given around 2000 speeches to more than 300.000 people worldwide. He knows his business, the twists and turns and potential pitfalls. Christian is a professional with in every cell of his body.

9. Because you don't want to work with a prima donna

Christian loves his work and he has the reputation to be very easy to work with. Nothing is complicated with Christian. For example, as soon as he will arrive, he will contact you to let you know he has arrived so you don't have to worry about him showing up on time. He will be in the speaking room at least one hour before his presentation. If you wish to, he will have lunch or dinner with you and the other participants. He will make sure he understands your reality and he will help you achieve your meeting objectives with less time, less effort and with more fun.

10. Because you would like your satisfaction to be guaranteed

„Promise a lot and give even more!“. It is the standard of excellence that Christian provides to each of his clients. The needs and challenges of your organization are unique - so will your program. If you are not satisfied, you don't pay!
